

Chief Harold Medlock

---

Chief Medlock served as Chief of Police of the Fayetteville Police Department for nearly four years, retiring in December 2016. He served over two decades with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department in a variety of assignments; promoting through the ranks. Chief Medlock promoted to Deputy Chief in 2008, overseeing the Field Services South Group, and serving as National Special Security Event (NSSE) Co-Chair for the 2012 Democratic National Convention.

Chief Medlock earned his Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice and an MBA from Pfeiffer University. He is a graduate of the FBI National Executive Institute, the FBI National Academy and the Senior Management Institute for Police.

Chief Medlock actively served on a number of law enforcement and social issue boards including the North Carolina Governor's Crime Commission, the North Carolina Police Executives Association, the North Carolina Criminal Justice Training and Standards Commission and the N.C. Commission for Racial and Ethnic Disparity. He was asked to present written and verbal testimony for the President's Task Force for 21st Century Policing. He serves as a consultant for the Bureau of Justice Assistance's Body Worn Camera, Strategies for Police Innovation, and Project Safe Neighborhoods training and technical assistance programs.